JESUS AND SPAGHETTI

Question - What do Jesus and spaghetti have in common? Answer - The June Thailand Missions Team! The team is headed to Chiang Dao to teach the Bible to the children of the Chiang Dao Childrens' Ministry sponsored by the Trinity Gospel Fellowship as led by Barnabas Seangsirikhun. They have prepared a great lunch of spaghetti and meatballs, with salad, bread and dessert in order to raise further funds to get there and to provide needed materials. PLEASE EAT LUNCH AT NORTH STREET CHURCH TODAY!

You can get take out orders after Chapel Hour, Sunday School or the Gathering for Worship at 10:15. You can eat-in after the Gathering for Worship at 10:15. Eat-in meals include a drink too! Cost is $6.00 for adults and $4.00 for children 10 and under.

The final fundraiser will be held May 1,2 - it will be a RONI ROLL Sale. Cost is $3.50 each or 5 for $5.00. Place your order today!

In this one-day simulcast event, women will learn to conquer fear and doubt and will discover the liberating confidence and security that can only be found in Christ.

Ladies who purchased tickets will meet at Legacy at 8:00 a.m. this Saturday, April 24th, for a continental breakfast after which they will depart at 8:30 a.m. to go to the conference at Harvest Community Church in Kittanning.

STAYING IN LOVE DVD SERIES WEDNESDAYS AT 6:45 IN ROOM 102

led by Dennis and Marianne Muir

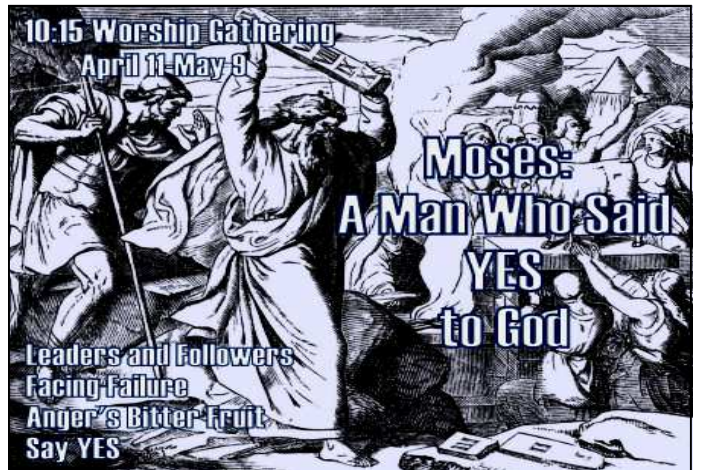

Everybody know what's required to fall in love. A pulse! Falling in love is easy. But staying there? That's something else entirely. Is it possible for two people to fall in love and actually stay there? Absolutely! Learn how in Andy Stanley's 4-part series, Staying in Love. Join Dennis and Marianne through May 5th.

HARVEST BIBLE CHAPEL'S DR. JAMES MACDONALD COMES TO PITTSBURGH

30 Hour Famine WE NEED YOUR HELP!

On May 7th and 8th, our youth will participate in World Vision's 30 Hour Famine. We are fasting for 30 hours to get a taste of hunger and to raise money to help feed and care for hungry kids and their families around the world.

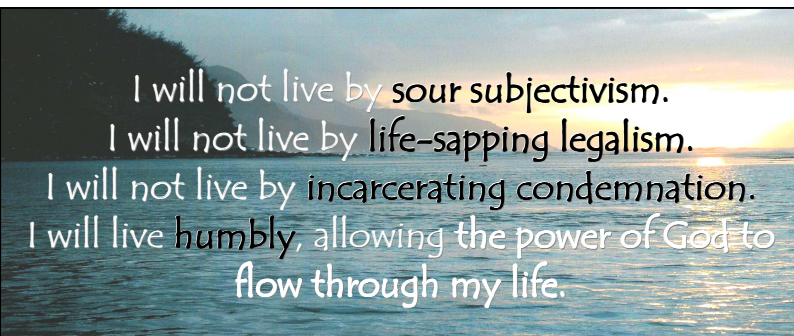

We'd like the whole church to be involved in our Famine. Here are some ways you can be part of the action...

1. Pray. Ask God to bless our students as they go without food so others can eat.
2. Participate. We need volunteers to help with our famine weekend event!
3. Give. Support our students' fundraising efforts—every $30 they raise can help feed and care for one child for a month!

Any questions? See Meghan Duffield for Forms & Information.

Team Leader: Matt Eckert—July 10 – 17 in Acuna, Mexico. Build a 15x30 House with Casas por Cristo. House Cost is $7,000.00. Additional cost per team member is approximately $550.00.

DayCamp Planning Meeting

A DayCamp planning meeting will be held Monday, April 26th at 7:00 p.m. in the Church Dining Room. Please plan to attend if you are interested in helping in ANY way.

FOR YOUR INTEREST: AUTHOR “GOES UNDERCOVER” TO OBSERVE, DOCUMENT EVANGELICALS

Atheistic author Gina Welch faked a conversion experience, got baptized, joined Thomas Road Baptist Church, and even joined an evangelistic missions trip to research her newest book, In the Land of Believers: An Outsider’s Extraordinary Journey into the Heart of the Evangelical Church. In an interview with Time magazine, Welch admitted that her experience showed that media perceptions of evangelicals are flawed, and she could even see the appeal of evangelical Christianity. “It’s very easy to roll your eyes at the whole culture if you don’t have any stake in anyone participating in it...the emotional, intoxicating experience of being at church and hearing that music, and the whole structure of a Sunday service, was moving to me. And I don’t believe in God.” She said there were indeed some people who “seemed to fit perfectly” with the media’s portrait of evangelical Christians—“brainwashed, simpleminded, and angry”—but Welch said the media didn’t properly reflect the complexity among believers. When asked if she regretted the undercover facade, Welch answered, “I think it hurt people I (came to) care about...but I think the ability for my book to bridge a gap between evangelicals and nonbelievers mitigates what I did to some extent.” Welch closed the interview saying the experience required her to re-examine what she believed to make sure she believed it for a reason; she hoped the book would inspire others to do the same. Comments and blogs on the story range in tone from irritation to curiosity—some complained that Welch’s actions were unethical, some found her observations interesting and reflective, and many hoped the experience would actually result in an authentic conversion experience for Welch. Some lamented that Welch only focused on the people of the church and never really searched for Christ Himself, which they say would have resulted in an entirely different report.

HELP WANTED-- SHEPHERD OF MY HEART PRESCHOOL needs YOU!

Would YOU help us? We are trying to let people in our area know that we have a Christian Preschool and Pre-Kindergarten program available right here at North Street Christian Church.

Please, look around your neighborhood, are any preschoolers, children 3-5 years old, living nearby? Maybe you have preschool-aged nieces or nephews or even grandchildren that would be ready for preschool. Tell everyone you know about us, your neighbors, friends and even co-workers. Feel free to grab a few preschool brochures from the Welcome Center to give to others. Thanks so much for your help!

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6

Fi Saeler,
Preschool Teacher

Thank you!

Dear Church Family,

Thank you all for you thoughts, concerns, visits, cards, and especially your prayers last weekend. I felt them all and am grateful. God is good! All the time!

In His Love,
Kim Gaiser

Thank you all so much for helping me celebrate my retirement. I spent 32 years at my job—stopped long enough to celebrate—and now I’m ready to do whatever God has planned. Onward and looking upward!

God Bless,
Jim Riemer
