WORLD VISION UPDATE

VARIETY SHOW—Friday, May 7th, at 7:30 p.m. to raise funds for World Vision. There is no cost for admission but your generous donations will be accepted. All proceeds will be going to World Vision. Please come out and support our cause. It is sure to be a blast!

30 HOUR FAMINE— May 7th and 8th. Our youth will be meeting at Legacy May 7th at 5:30 p.m. They are requested to bring the donations that they collected and anything needed for the overnight stay. Remember due to our time restrictions, there will be no showers. Call Meghan Duffield at 724-714-2882 for more information.

Our youth will be fasting for 30 hours to get a taste of hunger-and to raise money to help feed and care for hungry kids and their families around the world.

We'd like the whole church to be involved in our Famine. Here are some ways you can be part of the action...

1. Pray. Ask God to bless our students as they go without food so others can eat.
2. Participate. We need volunteers to help with our famine week-end event!
3. Give. Support our students' fundraising efforts—every $30 they raise can help feed and care for one child for a month!

Any questions? See Meghan Duffield for Forms & Information.

NORTH STREET MEN'S BREAKFAST

May 15th at 8:00

All North Street Men are invited to share breakfast, fellowship and prayer on Saturday May 15. Following a hearty breakfast, Bob Ogden will speak from II Corinthians 5:17 which says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away, behold, the new has come." Bob will lead the men to especially consider just what has passed away and what does it then mean to be a new creation! Men's Breakfast's are held the third Saturday of each month.

MY BANNER WILL BE CLEAR

I'm part of the fellowship of the unashamed. I have the Holy Spirit power. The die has been cast. I have stepped over the line. The decision has been made. I'm a disciple of His. I won't look back, let up, slow down, back away, or be still.

My past is redeemed, my present secure. I'm finished and done with low living, sight walking, smooth knees, colorless dreams, tamed visions, worldly talking, cheap giving and dwarfed goals.

I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotions, plaudits or popularity. I don't have to be right, first, tops, recognized, praised, regarded or rewarded. I now live by faith, lean on His presence, walk by patience, am uplifted by prayer and I labor with power.

My face is set, my gait is fast, my goal is heaven, my road is narrow, my way is rough, my companions are few, my Guide is reliable, my mission is clear. I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured, lured away, turned back, deluded or delayed. I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of the enemy, pander at the pool of popularity or meander in the maze of mediocrity. I won't give up, shut up, let up, until I have stayed up, stored up, prayed up, paid up, preached up for the cause of Christ. I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go until He comes, give until I drop, preach until all know and work until He stops me. And, when He comes for His own, He will have no problem recognizing me. My banner will be clear.

I am grateful for all the love, hugs, thoughts, prayers, and cards following the death of my earthly dad. A special thanks to P.B. for officiating and to all the funeral dinner ladies/servants for a delicious meal. My family appreciated the hospitality and love. More importantly, I thank my Lord upon every remembrance of you, my heavenly family.
