CELEBRATE MARRIAGE SUNDAY REPORT

30 Couples Affirm Wedding Vows at NSCC

On Sunday October 17, Pastor Bob preached a message entitled Marriage Matters. Following the message, married couples were invited to walk the aisle one more time to affirm their vows and commitment to Christian marriage. Approximately 30 couples accepted the invitation! Length of marriages at NSCC range from 68 years to 6 weeks! The crash was pulled, the candles were lit, the organ played, the men presented flowers to their wives! Once coming down the aisle - vows were exchanged and it was announced - You May Kiss the Bride! What a great day!

In addition to congratulating all who affirmed their marriage vows, we especially congratulate Doug and Lisa Emmett who are in Florida celebrating their 30th (this was their idea) and Tim and Elyse Robinson whose 1 Year Wedding Anniversary was on Sunday the 17th and Jon and Bonna Ray whose 45th Wedding Anniversary is today!

THE FIVE LANGUAGES OF LOVE

The Secret to Love That Lasts

During last week's message, Pastor Bob alluded to Gary Chapman's book, The Five Languages of Love. He encouraged husbands and wives to learn the love language of their mate and speak it often. In review - here are those languages of love:

Words of Affirmation—Actions don't always speak louder than words. If this is your love language, unsolicited compliments mean the world to you. Hearing the words, "I love you," are important—hearing the reasons behind that love sends your spirits skyward. Insults can leave you shattered and are not easily forgotten.

Quality Time—In the vernacular of Quality Time, nothing says, "I love you," like full, undivided attention. Being there for this type of person is critical, but really being there—with the TV off, fork and knife down, and all chores and tasks on standby—makes your significant other feel truly special and loved. Distractions, postponed dates, or the failure to listen can be especially hurtful.

Receiving Gifts—Don't mistake this love language for materialism; the receiver of gifts thrives on the love, thoughtfulness, and effort behind the gift. If you speak this language, the perfect gift or gesture shows that you are known, you are cared for, and you are prized above whatever was sacrificed to bring the gift to you. A missed birthday, anniversary, or a hasty, thoughtless gift would be disastrous—so would the absence of everyday gestures.

Acts of Service—Can vacuuming the floors really be an expression of love? Absolutely! Anything you do to ease the burden of responsibilities weighing on an "Acts of Services" person will speak volumes. The words he or she most want to hear: "Let me do that for you." Laziness, broken commitments, and making more work for them tell speakers of this language their feelings don't matter.

Physical Touch—This language isn't all about the bedroom. A person whose primary language is Physical Touch is, not surprisingly, very touchy. Hugs, pats on the back, holding hands and thoughtful touches on the arm, shoulder, or face—they can all be ways to show excitement, concern, care, and love. Physical presence and accessibility are crucial, while neglect or abuse can be unforgivable and destructive.

Gideon Representative Dr. William Reed joins us today for worship and share a few words about the ministry of Gideon's International at Chapel Hour at 8:00 and the Gathering for Worship at 10:15.

VOLUNTEERS SUPPORT WEDNESDAY NIGHTS' ALL ABOUT YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The "All About YOUth" program on Wednesday nights is taking off in a mighty way. The enthusiasm of the volunteers and the excitement of all the kids who are being transported reflect how the Lord is working here at NSCC.

There are ten volunteers who pick up and drop off kids every Wednesday night and pray for the needs of the children while the kids are participating in the activities NSCC. Each Wednesday, 10 to 14 kids are transported. Last Wednesday, five more were picked up for the first time. The transportation team has been helpful in growing the Wednesday Night program for Youth. To date 28 of the Day Camp attendees have been personally contacted and 25 of them are now coming! Praise the Lord. The other drivers who help by working on alternate Wednesday's are Jim Convery and Daryl Tait. Carol Ann Durbin was helping too as a van monitor. Bob Ogden is the transportation team coordinator and Barbara Carson is prayer leader coordinator. A great big thank you goes out to all of these dedicated volunteers!

It is time to bring your shoe boxes in and place them in front of the auditorium. The deadline is Sunday, November 21st. It is a simple gift, and it may take a little of your time and money, but in Mark 9:37 Jesus says, "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome Me but the One who sent Me."

FREEDOM MINISTRY

Monday Evenings at Legacy House

Anyone who struggles with habitual sin and/or substance abuse and wants to wage war against it is invited to join with us on Monday evenings at 7:00 at Legacy House. Tomorrow evening, we will walk through spiritual regeneration as found in the Beatitudes of Matthew 5. This ministry is led by Eric Eury and Pastor Bob.

Thank you's

I want to thank all of my sisters in Christ who provided meals for me. They were delicious and very much appreciated. Also, thank you all for your visits while I was hospitalized, the beautiful flowers, phone calls, and cards. I am truly blessed. God bless you all. Rondi Morder

We would like to thank all who stood with, for and near us for the 'celebrate marriage' worship. The joyful presence of the Holy Spirit was overwhelming! Words cannot explain nor emotions contain the fullness of heart, gratitude for the completed work in Christ Jesus and love for the body at NSCC that we experienced during worship. Having raised our voices in praise, been fed by the true word on commitment and then to be part of the continuous wave of couples who came forward and were affirmed by so many... 'surrounded by such a cloud of witnessess...we press on!' What a testimony to our God! What a strong witness to our friends, neighbors, families and community! Our God is good...and ALL His children said "AMEN".

Doug and Lisa Emmett

Thank you from Congregational Care and Fellowship to everyone who placed their names on the meal prep list. At this time we now have 43 names. That's terrific. If you missed the opportunity but would like to be added, please get in touch with me. Some names from the previous list were carried over onto this new one. If you prefer not to be on the list, please see me as it was my decision to carry them over when the list was put together. I can be reached here personally or through the church office, by e-mail at redeemed4ever@zoominternet.net, or home phone; 724-256-8559. Thanks for serving and loving.
