Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive. Now therefore, do not be afraid; I will provide for you and your little ones." And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them. Genesis 50: 19-21

ALL ABOUT YOUTH—MORNING OF SERVICE—AFTERNOON AT METRICK'S FARM

Did you know that it takes eight bees their entire life to make one teaspoon of honey? A group of about a dozen young people from the Wednesday Night Children's Ministry and about the same number of accompanying adults were as busy as those bees on Saturday, October 23. Teamwork was the name of the game as the group met at 10 a.m., broke out the rakes and leaf blowers, and spent the morning raking leaves and cleaning up the yards of four church families.

When the leaves were all raked the group traveled to Metrick's for a picnic lunch and an afternoon of fun on the farm. After visiting the cows, chickens and sheep the group wound their way through the corn maze and then settled down to listen to Mr. Metrick teach them about growing apples and how bees make honey. (No, it really isn't bee poop!) The afternoon concluded with a hayride around the farm and a visit to the shop to see a working bee hive, sample popcorn and hot apple cider, and buy some treats to take home.

Thanks to all the adults who came out to help. Our Children's Ministry kids shared God's love by stepping out in service, and a great time was had by all!

MEN WHO PRAY

November 2 @ 6:00

Men who are interested in joining other men in intercessory prayer are invited to meet in the Library this Tuesday Evening at 6:00. The prayer meeting will last for one hour. Any specific requests can be emailed to Pastor Bob at hubi@bloodbot.com. The Scripture says, "I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone- for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior, who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth." I Timothy 2:1-4

Shepherd of My Heart Fun on the Farm!

Preschoolers were treated to a morning on the Salvatora farm Monday, October 18th. The kids loved it! While petting the goats, one little boy told me he would not be seeing me in preschool for awhile. I wondered what he meant and asked him. He said, "Because I am going to stay here!" Their favorite things were: Roger's creative acorn and corncob necklace craft, the tractors and the goats! Several children said they loved EVERYTHING! - Mrs.Saeler, Preschool Teacher

The kids loved the bunny too!

Country Boy, Preston!

FREEDOM MINISTRY—Monday Evenings at Legacy House

Anyone who struggles with habitual sin and/or substance abuse and wants to wage war against it, is invited to join with us on Monday evenings at 7:00 at Legacy House. Tomorrow evening, we will walk through spiritual regeneration as found in the Beatitudes of Matthew 5. This ministry is led by Eric Eury and Pastor Bob.

WHEN GOD REVIVES A CHURCH

A Pastor recently was asked how his Church would be different if God were to truly bring revival. He said the following would result:

1. An Insatiable Hunger to Know Jesus

This hunger would include knowing the power of His resurrection and sharing of His sufferings. And there would be a guarding against the knowledge that "puffs up" - losing real love! (Philippians 3:10, I Corinthians 8:1)

2. Deep and Regular Seasons of Supplication and Thanksgiving

Rather than shallow and brief times of personal and corporate prayer - acknowledging our total dependence on God and crying out to Him for ourselves and others would become the norm. We would consistently be asking Him to do what only He can do in our lives and in the world.

3. A Growing Desire to Live Set-Apart Lives

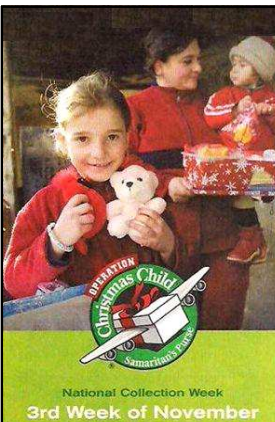

Learning to say NO to ungodliness would be an outcome without becoming proud, haughty, censorious or self-righteous. (Titus 2:12)

4. An Increasing Transparency About Our Lives and Struggles

Instead of seeking to hide our sins and to look good, we would live lives of perpetual brokenness, honestly opening ourselves to God and others where we need the Spirit to go to work in us. (Proverbs 28:13, Psalms 32:5)

5. Loving Our Neighbors Would Turn from Duty to Delight

We would see others as we once were - dead in trespasses and sins. Our hearts would be filled with compassion for the lost, longing to see them come to a saving knowledge of Christ. (Ephesians 2:1-9)

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

It is time to bring your shoe boxes in and place them in front of the auditorium. The deadline is Sunday, November 21st. It is a simple gift, and it may take a little of your time and money, but in Mark 9:37 Jesus says, "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome Me but the One who sent Me."

Congratulations!

Our congratulations to Michelle and Jason Zang on the birth of their son, Wyatt Liam, who was born on October 28th at 1:11 a.m. Wyatt weighed 8 lb. 8 oz.

Thank you

Dear North Street Christian Church,
Thank you so much for your note and card of encouragement. I deeply appreciate "your" prayers.

Gratefully with Love,
Audrey Clark

To the Wednesday Night Children's Ministry,
Thank you so much for the leaf raking you did for us last Saturday. It is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,
Don & Marlene Winters
