From The Pulpit

The Gospel of John Sermon Series

Pastor Jake returns today with the newly begun sermon series from The Gospel of John. Pastor Jake says, "In this series, The Book of John will be examined in detail with the goal of taking our time and learning the author's intent as we consider every word. John is confident in his beliefs about Jesus. You too can be confident that Jesus is God and become His child." John 1:12 makes that so very clear, "But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name"

A BROKEN AND CONTRITE HEART

"God is not looking for the powerful and the successful and those who are able communicators. Instead, He looks for the person who has a broken and contrite spirit. Those individuals, whether they are extroverted or introverted, humorous or melancholy, are regularly in the quiet place bowing before God's Word with a trembling heart and seeking fresh enabling from the Holy Spirit. They have been brought to see that they did not make themselves, nor did they save themselves. They are totally dependent upon God's grace (Isaiah 66:2)." Alistair Begg
