Hate Sin Love Righteousness

Sin is an ugly thing. True believers hate sin, but struggle with it for their entire lives. It can be a sad thought that we will never fully conquer sin here in this lifetime. Even with God giving us a new heart, and transforms us into new creations, we still battle sin. John emphasized this in 1 John 1:8+10. This fact makes the gospel such good news. We know that when we sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. This is why believers can have full assurance of salvation even though they still struggle with sin. One's salvation is reliant on Christ's perfection not their own. While a Christian still struggles with sin, it's not the object of their affection. True believers hate the sin that they struggle with. Read Romans 7 and see Paul's attitude towards his own sin. True believers love righteousness. So, when you discover sin in your own life, don't be shocked or surprised, but hate that it's there. Then trust Christ and repent, He is faithful to forgive and cleanse.

NEXT WEEK FUNDRAISER FOR AIDEN

Next Sunday, September 10th is the Bring your Best Fundraiser. Many of you are bringing a soup to sample and sell. These soups will be sold by the bowl or we will provide quart sized containers to go. For those staying to eat, a sandwich, drink, and dessert will be included with the bowl of your choice. Thank you all for your help and support for this event benefiting a family in need.
