A Celebration

Today Sunday, February 28, we are pleased to announce we officially recognition Pastor Jake Klutinoty as the new Senior Pastor of North Street Christian Church. Please plan to stay after church and fellowship as we enjoy some pepperoni rolls and ice cream.

Today's Text: Ephesians 4:17-24

To the Faithful Attendees of North Street Church

Thank you all so much for your generosity and the love that you have shown to Deanna and I throughout this past year. I feel so blessed at the opportunity to fill the role of Pastor for this church. When I became a Christian I knew I was suppose to preach God's Word. Since that time I have had only 2 real desires for my life. One of those desires was to have a family that I could love, raise, and point to Jesus, and the second was to pastor a church and grow with those people. I am thankful to God who has put me here and given me this calling, and I am thankful for your willingness to grow with me and accept me into this position. I don't take lightly the responsibility that is before me. While statistics show that it's extremely hard to follow a long standing pastor's ministry, I am thankful for the gospel and how it cuts through hard things and impacts hearts. This is why I will continue to lead this group of people with exposition of God's Word, allowing you to be fed from doctrine that is not my own, but from the God we serve together. If it was a matter of following me and my ideas, I would be the first one to tell you to find a new church, but since we are aiming to follow God's Word and His ideas we will stick to the text purposefully and trust the sovereignty of God together.

With love and excitement, Jake

James had a unique earthly relationship with Jesus, but his letter clarifies what the Christian life should look like for us all. The Book of James is filled with practical wisdom for Christians, calling us to live out genuine faith through good works, but it is also rooted in rich theology. Perhaps more than any other book in the New Testament, James emphasizes the application of Christian belief.
