Worshiping God

We have started into 1 Peter, and in the first few sentences Peter is seen worshiping God. One of the things he is worshiping over is that God has begotten us to a living hope and an eternal inheritance. That promised inheritance is something believers can't forget about. The inheritance we have in Christ Jesus is beyond our ability to exhaust. Such an inheritance should remind us that we have all that we need for all eternity in Christ. I talk to people regularly who read different resources, or follow some type of spiritual guru, and they end up packing their minds with worthless garbage and miss the glorious Jesus Christ. Romans 8:16-17 makes it clear that all believers are joint heirs with Christ. Being an heir together with Christ Himself makes one rich beyond measure. Don't waste your time on this earth looking for spiritual experiences or collecting the world's garbage. Worship in the fact that Jesus is enough and live in the resources that are yours in Christ Jesus.

Deacon/Deaconess Meeting

Exactly one month from today, March 26 will be the first Deacon/Deaconess meeting. All deacons and deaconesses will need to stay after church and come to this meeting. All deacons and deaconesses that expired in 2022 will be contacted to see if they wish to continue with the title. In the next few weeks there will be a list presented with all the names of the deacons and deaconesses. Those on that list will need to come to the meeting. The Elders will be adding more as time goes on, but we do intend to make the process a little more thorough.

Sunday School for March 2023

Our Sunday school teacher for the month of March will be George Rader. He will teach a review of the topics covered in the book: "Anxious for Nothing" authored by John MacArthur. The goal of this study will be to realign our thinking on anxiety with what God says about it in his WORD and why.

Welcome Baby Eli Collins

Logan and Niki Collins' adoption of Baby Eli was finalized on February 27 after being in their care for the last 7 months. It was a beautiful day surrounded by family and friends to celebrate the newest Collins.

"We can't thank you all enough for your support through this whole process. You watched and prayed as we tried to become parents for the last 7 years and you assisted us through the last 2 years whether it was through prayer, financial support or even a needed hug when we were feeling discouraged. We are so blessed to call North Street our family and without you and Christ, we wouldn't have the honor of being Eli's parents."
