THE WRATH OF GOD

We are looking at the wrath of God. As I pondered the wrath of God this week I couldn't stop thinking about how one cannot understand the cross of Jesus Christ without an understanding of the wrath of God. Paul has written Romans in such a way that reveals one can't understand the grace of God without understanding the wrath of God. You see, one has to understand why man's sin makes the death of Christ necessary. God hates sin. He must because it is a requirement for His holiness. God's just nature requires Him to pour out His wrath on the unrighteousness that He hates. Therefore, the cross of Jesus Christ isn't just a place where Christ died and believers become righteous. It's the place where the Holy God's perfect wrath was satisfied. Far too many people claim to believe something without drawing that belief to its conclusion. It's man's sin that puts them in a position of needing to be saved. Man needs to be saved from the wrath of God. So, the death of Christ is the sacrificial act of Christ taking the wrath of God for all of God's children. Don't close your ears or skip the next few months as we look at the wrath of God. His Holy wrath is necessary for one to understand if they are to understand what happened at the cross on Calvary.
