OUR DEEPEST GRATITUDE TO OUR TROOPS

We Remember Those Who Have Fallen

The following article appeared in the Butler Eagle during World War II:

WITH A FRIEND

Look God, I have never spoken to you,
But now I want to say "How do You do?"
You see God, they told me You didn't exist,
And like a fool I believed all this.

Last night from a shell hole I saw Your sky
And figured then they had told me a lie.
Had I taken time to see things You made I'd have known they weren't calling a spade a spade.

I wonder, God, if You'd shake my hand.
Somehow I feel You will understand.
Funny I had to come to this hellish place
Before I had time to see Your face.
Well, I guess there isn't much more to say
But I'm sure glad, God, that I met You today,
I guess the zero hour will soon be here
But I'm not afraid since I know You're near.
There's the signal—I've got to go...
I like You lots, I want You to know...
Look now, this will be a horrible fight,
Who knows? I may come to Your House tonight?

Though I wasn't friendly to You before, I wonder, God, if You'd wait at Your door?
Look, I'm crying—me!—shedding tears! I wish I had known You these many years.

Well, I have to go now, God, goodbye...
Strange, since I met You, I'm not afraid to die.
___Pfc. J.J.W.

Purists would never call "With a Friend" poetry but to us it rates with the greatest poems ever written. As an expression of simple faith, in the language of an American boy, it is priceless. May the brave lad on whose body it was found be in Heaven.
