Today's Text: John 11: 17-44

We at North Street Christian Church are a group of people who are passionate about and living for the glory of God. We gather together to worship Christ because He is totally worthy. In our worship of God, we aim to know God which is why we spend time in the Bible. You will find our services to be sermon heavy and very focused on the proper interpretation of the text. Join us as we aim to be the church and properly understand the living God that we serve.

The Goodness of God

We have been looking at the qualities of God for quite some time now. While we can't fully grasp the depths of any of God's characteristics, we need to have a healthy concept of who God is based on what scripture reveals. The pursuit of holiness in one's life largely depends on that individual's concept of God. Today, I am writing about the goodness of God. We must know that God is good. We have been seeing that these qualities don't describe God, they come from God. Like any of God's qualities, He can't be partway anything. So when I say that God is good, He is totally and infinitely good. Upon recognizing our moral wretchedness, it becomes easy to see God's goodness. It's the goodness of God that allows you to exist. It's the goodness of God that made redemption possible. It's the goodness of God that died as a substitute for us. It's the goodness of God that answers our prayers. No human has ever received anything he earned except eternal punishment. Every good and perfect gift has been given by our good God. Perhaps the best way to reflect on the goodness of God is to look at Jesus Christ. Christ being the full expression of the Godhead in bodily form was very good to people. He showed so much compassion and was the kindest man to ever walk the planet. Go through the gospels and see how intentional Jesus is at loving the broken and hurting. My friends, rejoice at the goodness of God and allow the thought of His infinite goodness to drive the way we live. Follow Him.

A DAY OF PRAISE

Last week we had three baptisms. Ken, Todd, and Andy have all been born again through faith in Jesus Christ and followed that up by being obedient in baptism. Here at North Street we believe that baptism is by immersion and is done only after one is saved by God's grace. Water baptism doesn't save anyone, but it is a ceremony that visibly displays an individual's death with Christ and resurrection to new life. Baptism points backward to that individual salvation, and forward to the lifestyle of obedience that one will live. We rejoice at the obedience these men have shown.
