Today's Text: Matthew 21:1-11

Palm Sunday is the Sunday before Easter. In scripture Christ rode into Jerusalem and is hailed as king and lifted up by the Jews. These are the very same Jews that would shout, "Crucify Him!" and put Him on a cross Friday morning. One of the things that I love about Palm Sunday is the fact that Christ is done proving Himself. He has lived the perfect sinless life and is being exalted as the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Throughout Christ's ministry He has proven His supernatural ability in many ways. But when we come to this last week of the life of Christ, He is done proving Himself and comes presenting Himself. As Jesus rides into the city on a donkey, He is fully presenting Himself as the Messiah. (The Jews shout, "Hosanna!" Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!") Jesus knows this attention will lead to the slaughter of God's chosen lamb on Friday morning. He comes as a willing sacrifice, ready to complete His work of redemption and appease the wrath of God. As the people threw their coats and palm branches down like a red carpet for a king, Christ was anticipating the red pool of blood that would be shed at the cross. For you and I today, we live post resurrection where we can celebrate Jesus the King, who has conquered sin and death and is seated at the right hand of God. The Jews were anticipating a conquering messiah politically; we live in and celebrate a conquering Messiah spiritually. So rejoice and worship because "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord." The King of kings!

Join us on FRIDAY at 7:00 pm for our Good Friday Worship.

Next Sunday we will celebrate The Resurrection of Jesus Christ!

The Book of James is filled with practical wisdom for Christians, calling us to live out genuine faith through good works, but it is also rooted in rich theology. Perhaps more than any other book in the New Testament, James emphasizes the application of Christian belief.
