Today's Message: John 12:1-11

WALKING WITH JESUS YET FOLLOWING SATAN

Today in John 12 we see a major difference in attitude. Mary gives us an amazing picture of devotion where Judas gives us a picture of deceiving. This look at Judas throughout the week had me studying his life. What a tragic character. The worst in all of history. Judas has the same opportunity that the other eleven apostles had. For three years he followed and listened to Jesus Christ daily. But unlike the other apostles, he becomes a tragic waste of opportunity. Judas was walking with Christ and yet following Satan. It reminded me that people can be very near Jesus and still miss him altogether. Judas knew the truth but he never received the truth giver. Christianity is not checking the boxes. Many people go to church, help others, even enjoy the message of the Bible, but they never embrace the savior. From this we need to learn that spiritual opportunity can be offset by selfish ambition. Die to self and submit to the savior. ~Pastor Jake

Remembering Those Who Served

Some people from North Street gathered this week to make cards for the Marines that will be returning home. These cards are being sent to North Carolina and will be placed in welcome home packages for the Marines. We at North Street are thankful for the service of our armed forces. Thanks to all who participated.

NSCC Ladies Craft Day

September 25 starting at 1:30pm

Join us for a fun day of crafting!

The cost is $5...covers jars, paint, twine, and letter blocks.

You will need to purchase enough flowers for each of your jars.

Participants will need to sign-up so I can be sure to have enough supplies on hand.

Sign-up sheet will be on the table in church foyer.
