HAVING AND DOING ARE NOT THE SAME

We are looking at the responsibility of those who have the gospel. The Jews prided themselves on having the law and the ability to be teachers of the law. We are in the same spot in terms of access. We are not lacking in the revelation of God. But having the Bible or even teaching the Bible is different from doing what it says. 2 Peter 1:10 is a great verse for understanding true faith. While anyone can claim to love the Bible or claim to have faith, it's one's actions that reveal who that person is. Peter says - "Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble." Peter emphasizes that God calls His people to Himself. However, the way one can make sure salvation is a reality in their life is by doing the word. True believers can't be hearers only. So rejoice that we have the written word of God available to us, but realize that we can't just internally say we have confidence in having it, we must live it. Get motivated to be a doer of the word church.

We will spend some time looking at the Bible and grow together. All youth are welcome, bring your friends, and let's try to build a group. Travis will be there. We will meet from 6:30-8:30; if everyone is having fun, we can stay longer. See Travis or Pastor Jake for an address and any questions you may have.
